MOVIE NIGHT

❖ Popcorn, adult libations and Alfred Hitchcock's North by Northwest attracted some 20 Rotarians and friends to tonight's special Movie Night at the golf clubhouse.

Not sure who all the workers were, but noted the following being very busy handling chores: Morgan in the ticket booth; President Bob at the laptop/projector; Betty Roberts and Lisán Campbell making the popcorn; PP Kent Campbell tending bar; and Howard Harker and Lee Kirkpatrick setting up, handling the lights and keeping the fans going.

A fun time. Your reporter especially enjoyed watching Cary Grant keep his suit neat and clean no matter what (with the exception of his jump into the corn patch when he gets dusted by the bi-plane). Also neat seeing all of those '50s autos, and what was most amazing was seeing those New York crowds with not one person yelling or gazing into his/her cell phone. I guess even Alfred Hitchcock could not visualize that scene, which is surely common today!

ROSTERS ARE OUT

❖ Burnett Tregoning and Susan Royce, co-editors of this year's membership roster update, are pleased to announce that the 2018-2019 edition is hot off the press. They will be available at Morgan's table at next week's meeting, so please be sure to pick up your copy.

SIGN UP FOR BOCCE

❖ As announced last week, this year's annual Rotaplast Intl. Bocce Ball Tournament is scheduled for Sunday, August 19, at the San Rafael Bocce courts, 550 “B” St. The event, a fundraiser to enable Rotaplast “to bring smiles to children around the world,” starts at 9 a.m. and — depending on how talented your team is—continues on until 5. Burnett has the sign up sheet.

CLUB FUNDS SUPPORT REFUGEES

❖ Recently, the Mill Valley Rotary board of directors, responding to a request by Vicky Trapalis who spoke to the club last January about the problems of refugees in Greece, donated $2,500 to an organization called Love Without Borders for Refugees in Need. Kayla Martinez, founder of the organization, which is based in Grandview, Missouri, sent an email thank you note to the club this past Monday in which she detailed how the funds were put to work:

◆ Amygdaleza Detention Center: This detention center houses 500 individuals, primarily adult males, facing deportation based on negative asylum decisions. However, this center also houses 50 unaccompanied and 28 families, including women and children. Kayra has been working closely with the warden of the detention center to provide necessities to those detained that the facility is not otherwise able to provide. She spent 638.60 euro on diapers, summer shoes (flip flops) for all the residents, and toys for the children (ie., balls, cards, etc.)

◆ Homeless Families: Kayra spent 320 euro to house a homeless family, consisting of a mother, father, a two-month old baby, and two children under age six. The family had spent one week sleeping outside at a local park and several weeks sleeping outside of one of the refugee camps. The boy child required immediate medical attention due to severe crusting to his feet and what appeared to be a fungus on his fingers and fingernails. Kayra also provided the family with a food stipend of 250 euro for the month. She used an additional 320 euro for the security deposit on the apartment that she is housing them in.

◆ Nea Kavala Refugee Camp: A woman at Nea Kavala refugee camp was released from the hospital the day after delivering her child and told to return to the camp. Kayra believed that to return to camp conditions immediately after giving birth was unreasonable and inhumane. She is housing her in a hotel for a few weeks until both her and her newborn child's health improves. She used 525 euro for the lodgings and 270 euro for food.

◆ Art Supplies: Kayra explains that the children at Vial refugee camp on Chios Island have recently been exposed to additional trauma due to a violent confrontation between two ethnic groups at this camp. A Greek organization on the island contacted her asking if she would be interested in working with the children on an art project. Kayra accepted their offer to bring an art program to the children of the camp and spent 160 euro on canvases and paints.
