HOLIDAY LUNCHEON

► A tip of Santa’s cap to organizer Roberta Keller and the staff at Piazza D’Angelo restaurant in downtown Mill Valley. That was a wonderful way to get into the holiday mood as members of the Rotary Club of Mill Valley and their guests met and mingled at the club’s traditional Holiday gathering. Our thanks to Nancy McKlveen, Margareth Tanner, Ed Marshall and Burnett Tregoning for the photos in this report.

HOLIDAY HONORS: Club President Bob Roberts presented awards to several members to recognize their service: PP Bob Canepa (bottom left) received a Gilded Globe in recognition for his years as president of the Mill Valley Rotary Service Fund. Bob has been a member of the club for 35 years, was president in 1991-92, and has attended

Rotary meetings around the world while traveling as an unofficial club ambassador. Others receiving recognition included your editor (right); our fabulous Sergeants at Arms Peter Straube, Peter Mason and Howard Harker (bottom right); Past President Jane Hall (below) for her work with visiting youth; and Bill Lambrecht (shown left with wife and PDG Leah) who has served as International Service Chair for many years.

WELCOME OUR NEW PRESIDENT ELECT ELECT CARL LIPPENBERGER

► The Holiday Luncheon also serves as the club's official annual meeting at which the Nominating Committee presents its candidate to serve as club president in 2020-21 (the President Elect Elect). In the photos below Nominating Committee Chair Richard Rider congratulates Carl Lippenberger (who, by the way, was elected by an enthusiastic unanimous voice vote), and Santa assures Carl's wife Ginger that 2020-21 will be a fantastic year around the Lippenberger household.

'TIS THE SEASON... to be giving—Two attendees made special financial contributions at today's meeting:

- ◆ Honorary Member Russ Burbank donated $250 to the club's Service fund, and
- ◆ Guest Matt Mathews, co-owner of that fabulous new Mill Valley Lumber Yard, donated bell-ringers to both the Service Fund and The Rotary Foundation.

CLUB CALENDAR

December 25: No Meeting.

Merry Christmas!

January 1: No Meeting.

Happy New Year!

January 8

(12:15): What a wonderful way to kick-off the new year. Our fellow Mill

Valley Rotarian

Dick Spotswood

will be our speaker today. Dick, resident political pundit at the Marin IJ

and a past president of Mill Valley

Rotary, will give us the lowdown on the current local and national political scene. Bring a guest. You'll both learn something and have fun at the same time.

January 15 (12:15): Gil

Sanborn will address Russian

Information Warfare. Today, actors such as Russia are using information tools in an attempt to undermine the legitimacy of democracies. Adversaries target media, political processes, financial networks, and personal data. Gil Sanborn, Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army for California, will discuss Russian perspective toward, and strategy and tactics against, the West and border nations and the use of "Information Warfare" as part of a strategy of "Hybrid Warfare."

January 22 (12:15): Mill Valley

Rotarian Sue Royce will speak on Pioneers of Flight – The First

Powder Puff Derby in 1929. An accomplished aviatrix herself, Sue will discuss the history of women in air racing. She will begin with the 20 women who defied convention by taking to the skies and racing across the country in 1929 for the 1st Women's National Air Derby. Sue will share her experience flying with her mother, Beth Fuhrman, in the last Powder Puff Derby and also the Angel Derby in 1978. She will finish up her presentation with the Air Race Classic (formerly the Powder Puff Derby) which she competed in last year in memory of her mother who passed away one month before the race.
